For most of my professional career, I have enjoyed the challenge of investigating and repairing mechanical issues with industrial equipment. Starting in 2003, I became a maintenance technician as a career and continued that until 2017. I have always had a passion for working with computers. In 2017, SRI gave me the opportunity to change careers and follow that passion of working in the digital world. I am a licensed private investigator primarily focused on digital forensics. I am currently the IT technician and digital analyst for SRI. I maintain all computers, tablets, networks, phone systems, security systems and troubleshoot and solve problems for any and all digital issues at SRI. I have a remote pilot license for small unmanned aircraft systems. I have multiple certifications with Cellebrite, the leading forensic software for cellphone extractions. I have assisted in multiple investigations that involve digital evidence, including mobile, video, and audio evidence. I also assist with 3D computer generated models for accident reconstruction services. My knowledge and training is an invaluable asset in today's digital world.
